

WEEK 10 (04/02/22)

1. Write a program using function to accept a string as an argument, performs string reversal and returns the output to the calling function.
2. Write a function for raising an integer to a given power (integer) using recursion.
3. Write the program to sum the digits of the given number using recursion.
4. Write the program to display the minimum and maximum of an array passed as an argument to a function.
5. Write a program using function that accepts the employee's salary details: Basic pay, DA and HRA. Calculate total salary for individual employee and display it.(total salary=Basic pay+DA+HRA)
6. Write a program to read 10 names of the Indian cities and display the same in Lexicographical order.